

Hey Everyone,
I know that all of you recognize this guy. For a long time now he has been part of the OSA Holiday Show. We had large wooden cut outs of him pointing the way to the show. He has been in all of our flyers, advertising, street signs & yard signs. I realized that this whole time we have just been calling him "Snowman". If the Big Blue Bug(Nibbles Woodaway) has a name our "Snowman" should have a proper name too.

I'm calling on all of you creative thinkers to name the OSA Snowman.

It needs to be something really special Befitting of the mascot of Ocean State Artisans. Not just Frosty or Snowy but something that denotes an artistic flair! Be your creative selves and let's come up with something.
