

Hello Everyone,
As we are finishing our shows for the year & getting ready to spend the holidays with friends and family I wanted to recap the 2023 OSA Holiday Show. We had a well attended event thanks to our newspaper, radio & television segments. Our best advertising was you, our great members who spread the word. As you were busy making $$ dollars $$ at the show our front desk volunteers collected (drum roll please!) $15K to divide among our 5 charities.

Our generous customers also donated 1.82 tons canned goods that the RI Food Bank will distribute to needy families this holiday season.

Dec 2023

While at a show after OSA I had two customers and a vendor ask me where the show is going to be next year. Our little college show has grown exponentially over the last few years (Thank you Beth for your vision). I know Beth & the show committee are already thinking about the 33rd annual OSA show. If you have any ideas about the show please consider being a committee member. We are always looking for fresh ideas & hands on help with the show.
